

iNSECTS AT NighT

In Rose Canyon PARK

Space is limited – registration required.

Choose from two 2008 dates:

Saturday, July 19

Saturday, August 9

8:00 – 10:00 p.m.

Black Lights Reveal All!

We will set up blacklights to attract insects, capture them in magnifying boxes, get a good look, identify them, then let them go.

Free - Kids and Adults Welcome

You can leave at any time - but probably won't want to.

No bathrooms available

To register: Send email with number of adults and children, choice of date, and your phone number to: rosecanyon@san.rr.com or call 858-597-0220.

Location: Meet at dead end of Regents Road in University City
(2 blocks north on Regents from Governor Drive/Regents Rd. intersection)

Leader: Michael Klein, entomologist (insect expert) and insect enthusiast.
We will start with a short talk at the trail head, then walk down into Rose Canyon where the black lights will be set up.

Bring: A flashlight in order to see going back up the trail after the event.
